

Media-Go Engineering Ltd awarded the Caring Company Logo recognizing corporate social responsibility contribution.

Media-Go Engineering Ltd ("Media-Go") has been awarded the 2005/07 Caring Company Logo by the Hong Kong Council of Social Service during the ceremony today, recognizing their contribution and outstanding performance during the past years in corporate social responsibility.

Media-Go is the first company awarded Caring Company Logo in the industry. Mr. Tony Yeung, Managing Director of Media-Go, said, "We are honored to have received this award, which serves as an encouragement to our efforts. We encouraged our employees to participate in volunteer services and share the business expertise with social service organizations. We are fortunate to have a group of highly motivated employees that actively involved in social services. This is really volunteer effort in terms of time spent and money donated."

Media-Go's collaboration with the Praying Heart Counseling Center (PHCC) realizes a three-way synergy for social service organizations, companies, and service recipients. With Media-Go's sponsorship and the efforts of its volunteer team to support the organization Audio-Video and computer systems, PHCC is able to serve the client in a more efficient way.

In addition, Media-Go actively motivated employees to participate in a wide range of community program, such as the Care Team to Sri Lanka as local caregivers after the Tsunami Disaster in 2005. This empowered the local caregivers with the knowledge and skills of counseling and community care.

As a "Caring Company", Media-Go met the criteria set by HKCSS, including volunteering, partnering and giving etc. Media-Go as one of the largest Audio-Visual Service Provider in Asia, considers itself an integral part of the community and hold social responsibility. It will continue to initiate a wide range of charity campaigns and events in the different countries aiming to build a caring community and harmonious world.
