

Aethra Launches New Videoconferencing System

Aethra X series set-top is a high-performance system at the cutting-edge of set-top technology. It is ideal for medium and large scale videoconferencing sessions that require enhanced audio and video quality. With extrusion of aluminum case, Aethra X5 & Aethra X3 are 2006 new designed models.

Aethra X5 set-top

- Target medium to large size conference room
- Built-in Multipoint Conference Unit (MCU) connects to 8 sites
- Up to 768 kbps over ISDN & 4 Mbps over IP
- Built-in Pal Camera with 122 preset positions
- Embedded XGA port allows PC plug-in simultaneous dual-stream video and live PC presentation with enhanced images
- With 1 microphonic pod with echo cancellation & 360 degree coverage
- On-screen graphic user interface
- Patented voice tracking technology
- AES encryption

Aethra X3 set-top

- Target small to medium size conference room
- Up to 128 kbps over ISDN & 2 Mbps over IP
- Built-in Pal Camera with 122 preset positions
- Embedded XGA port allows PC plug-in simultaneous dual-stream video and live PC presentation with enhanced images
- On-screen graphic user interface
- With 1 microphonic mini-pod with echo cancellation
- AES encryption

