

VTRON Announces New Control Room solution- LCD Display Wall System

VTRON, a leading technology company that specializes in providing comprehensive control room systems and solutions for interactive learning, meeting, and training, is presenting the latest LCD display wall system for video wall applications.

VTRON L-WX4601, the advanced narrow-bezel 46" LCD display with WXGA resolution engages a number of innovative features for wide range 24/7 applications. Using the latest DID Panel, the new VTRON LCD series ensure durability of immaculate image immaculate images and spectacular readability. Merging the VTRON owned Super Signal Processing Technology, the L-WX4601 has its own competitive advantage of picture-in-picture function, each panel allows one channel of video signal and one channel of RGB signal displaying on the video wall in window mode, anywhere and at any size.

High Reliability, High Image Quality, High Brightness, No Irreversible Burn-in, Slim design, Less Power Consumption, all these features makes the new VTRON LCD display wall be the perfect solution for small to medium-sized control room applications such as Monitoring Centres, Traffic and Security Centres, Utilities, Shopping Malls, Trade Fairs, etc.